About ACCA

The ACCA logo, consisting of the letters "ACCA" in white, bold, sans-serif font, centered within a solid red square.

Association of Chartered Certified Accountants (ACCA) is the global leader in professional accountancy, offering internationally recognized qualifications in accounting, finance, and management. With a focus on future-ready learning and business relevance, ACCA equips professionals with the skills needed to excel in today's dynamic marketplace. It supports a global network of 233,000 members and 536,000 students across 110 countries. It is equivalent to a Chartered Accountant (ICAI) Degree.

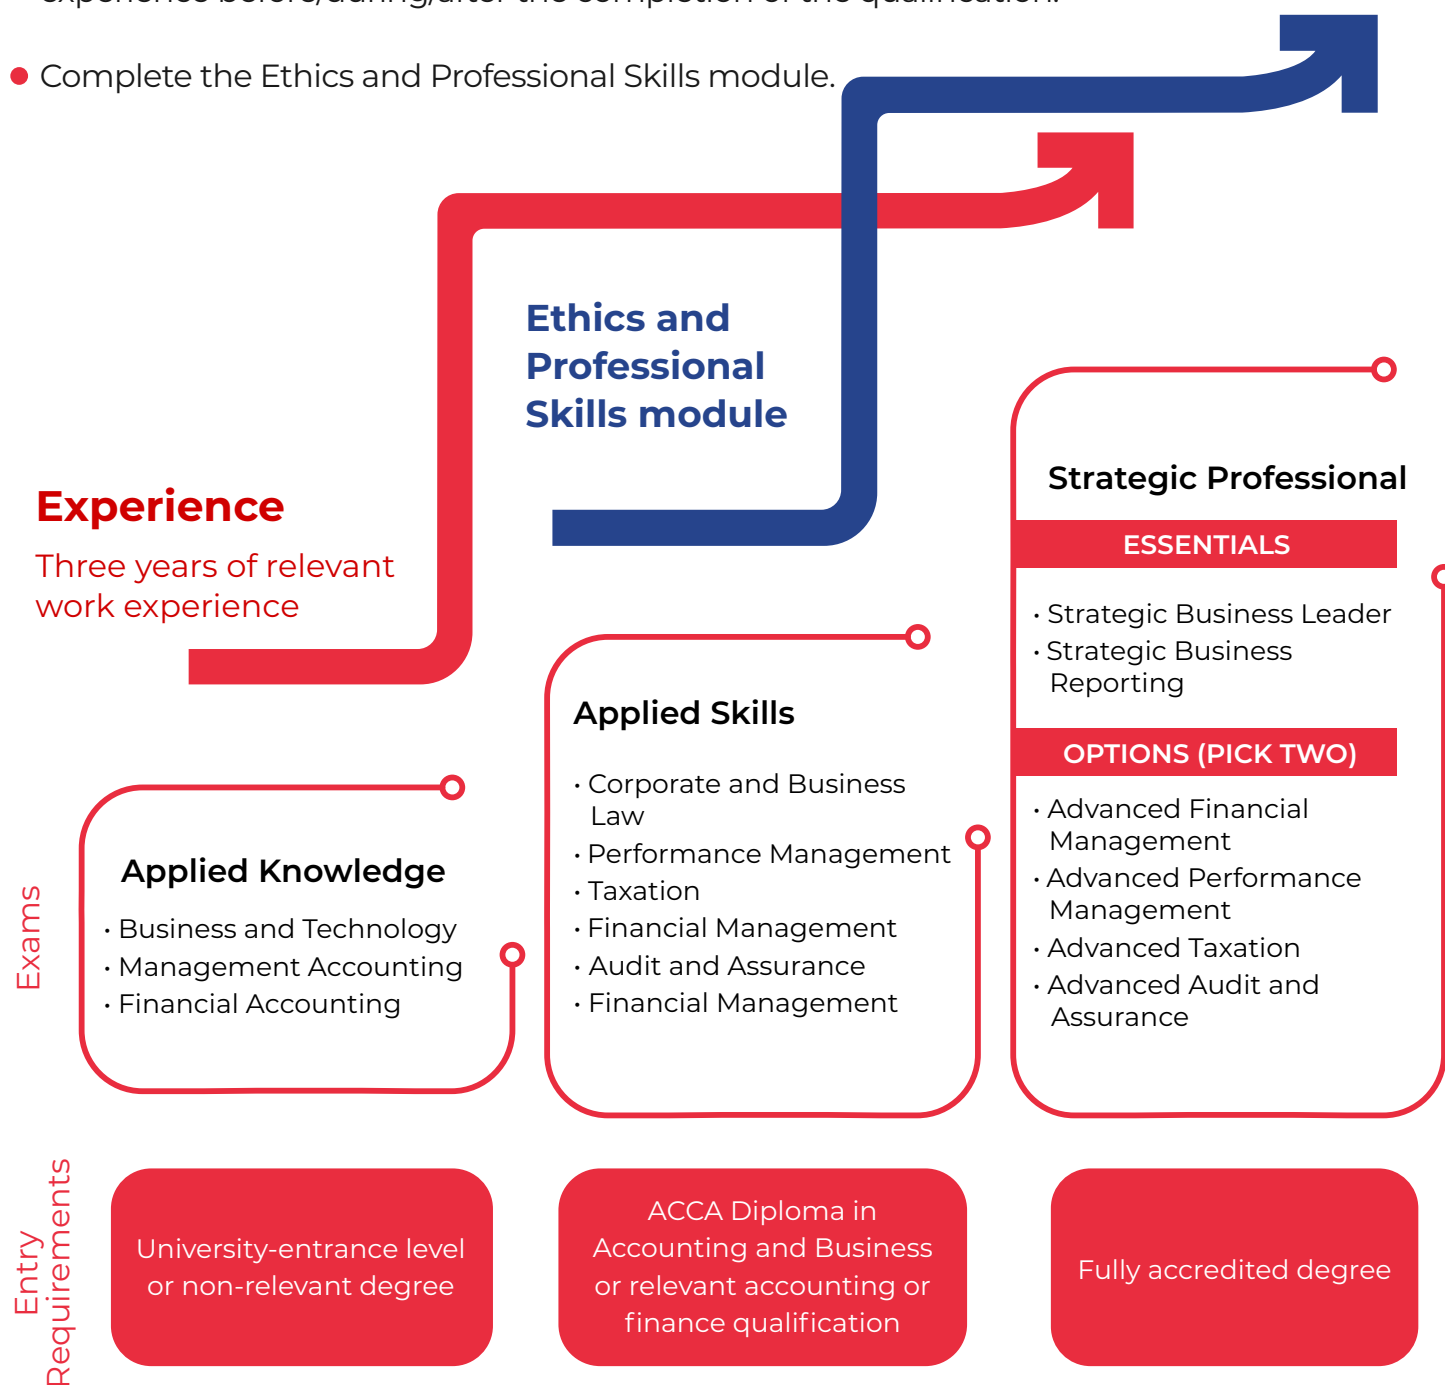

Why ACCA?

- Get access to global accounting roles.
- Become a globally acclaimed Chartered Accountant.
- Claim exemptions based on previous qualifications and experience.
- High global pass rate of ACCA (~60%).
- Credibility of ACCA Membership.

Becoming an ACCA Member

To qualify as an ACCA member, a candidate must do the following:

- Attempt and clear 13 exams (Up to 9 exam exemptions can be availed by learners). The 13 subjects and exams are divided into three levels: Applied Knowledge, Applied Skills & Strategic Professional.
- Record 3 years' work experience in a relevant role. The candidate can acquire the experience before/during/after the completion of the qualification.
- Complete the Ethics and Professional Skills module.
